ANCHORS AWEIGH

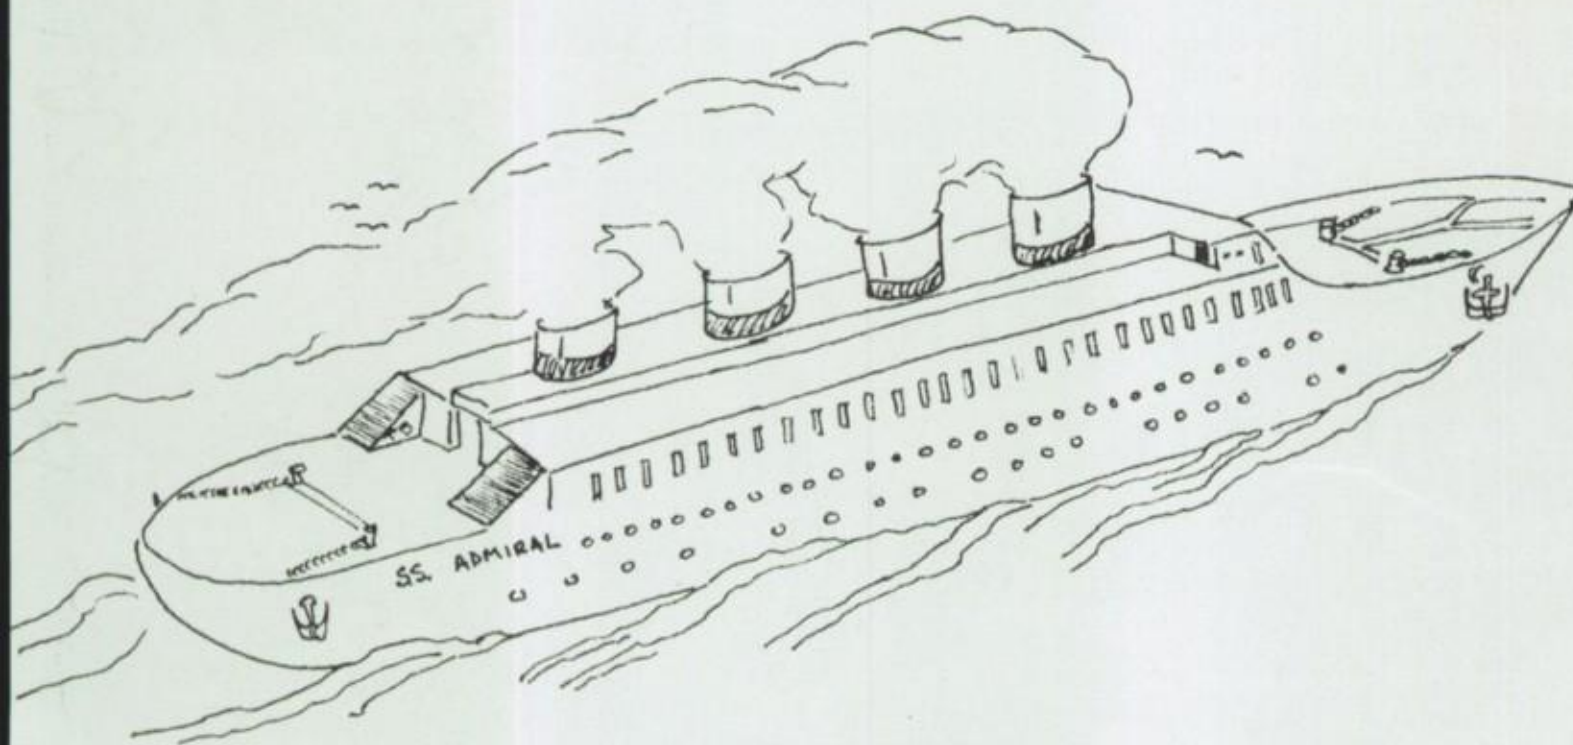

As we lifted anchor and set sail on the 1986-87 school year, we had many goals to reach and many dreams to fulfill. Some would be reached and some would not, but the 1986-87 school year would have a special meaning to everyone involved.

For the freshmen, it was seeing new faces, making new friends, getting lost, and becoming adjusted to their new surroundings.

The sophomores found they were no longer the "new kid on the block" and were one step closer to graduation. For the juniors, there were class rings, driver's licenses, and the responsibilities of being upper classmen.

The class of 1987 was suddenly faced with ACT's, college visits, decisions about their futures, and the excitement of graduation.

SHIP'S LOG

Aug.-Dec., 1986

On registration day everyone returned with mixed emotions. Some were glad to see their friends that hadn't been around all summer. Others looked like their summer had been too short. It did seem to fly by. Picking out the freshmen was easy. All of them looked terrified.

Student Council officers had worked hard to put up motivational banners. They had also worked to change our schedules by reducing classes by five minutes each. As a result we were able to get an extended homeroom, a ten minute break between second and third periods, lunch for five minutes longer, and school was dismissed ten minutes earlier.

Before registration day though lots of things had happened. The band had camp and practice, the cheerleaders had also camped and practiced, the cross country teams were practicing to take their third State Championship in a row, football and soccer practices were in full swing and new faculty were being searched out to replace those who had resigned.

During the first several weeks, students noticed the new changes and began to get used to them. Again Student Council had worked and been able to get consent for more pep rallies and victory dances. They also arranged class meeting times and more assemblies. Visitors included Dr. Betty Sue Griffin who gave a motivational speech to get the year started off. Free Fare, who was a rock band, brought a message of handling peer pressure, a group from Argentina treated us to music of their land, and Dr. Ray Hammond spoke on his travels to Thailand. All brought good messages and were much appreciated.

8. Student Council shows its appreciation for teachers by placing apples in their mailboxes.
9. Mr. Turner speaks at a Junior Achievement meeting.
10. In September the "Grupo Criollo Universitario" presented traditional Venezuelan music to the student body.

As school began to become a part of our daily lives, all of the things that normally occur in the fall at DHS occurred. Everyone was working like crazy. The soccer, cross country and football teams made everyone very proud once more. Mr. Frazier of the Balfour Company began his visits to talk to juniors and seniors about rings and announcements. The 1986 Anchor came from the publisher and was distributed. The band hosted its annual Danville Invitational Band Contest at Admiral Stadium, and the annual Open House for parents was held. This year College-Career Night was held at DHS for Danville and Boyle County juniors and seniors. Then there were school pictures that everyone hates. Next up popped Homecoming. The time and preparation involved made one tire to think about it.

Just when everyone was settling down, it was time for report cards. The sophomores and juniors took the PSAT, and NHS held their annual trick-or-treat for youngsters. The band finished its season by going to State and winning the state trophy in its class. This gave them the right to go to finals where they earned the right to call themselves the tenth best marching band in Kentucky. The annual Senior Slave Sale was held, and Slave Day was a riot as usual.

As winter approached, everyone began wearing their sweaters, scarves and gloves. Fall sports were ending with banquets while winter ones were just beginning with sore muscles. Academic teams were also assembling for competition in the spring.

Nearing Christmas break, everything was wild: basketball games to go to, shopping to get done, a strange new amount of homework and tests all while most everyone was combating illness of some kind. Everyone needed their Christmas break desperately, and it was well received by all.

The styles of the school year were bright and colorful. Sweaters, shoes, handbags, jewelry, and long straight skirts were big sellers. The usual loafers, boots and flats stayed in fashion. Big earrings became very popular along with silver jewelry. Short flat top haircuts were seen on quite a few guys. A lot of the girls wore shoulder length hair bobbed or permed.

Haley Springate, Melinda Harris and Margaret Peniston modeled some of the dressier styles that were being shown at Raggs(1). Denim outfits and oversized shirts and sweaters were popular. Trying on some of the more stylish outfits for guys were Doug Pope and Jimmy Baughman(2). Guys wore bright shirts and sweaters with slacks or jeans. Keith Morgan, Kelly Terry and Mike Lanham show off some casual styles of the year at Watsons(8). At All Sports Mike Lanham and Keith Morgan wear the school sweatshirts and sweats that became so popular(3). Scott Scoggins, Susan Dadisman, Tom Bauer, Cynthia Hagley, Coletta Thurman, Adam Hill and Todd Davis model everyday clothes(6).

Shoes were very big all year long. Bright, spring colors(4) along with the newly popular gold and silver ones(7) were sold at Parkers and worn by most high school girls. Students enjoyed being in style and staying with the fashion trends during the 86-87 school year.

Headlines 1986-87

The 1986-1987 school year proved to contain several exciting news events. During the summer, everyone across America celebrated the 100th Birthday of the Statue of Liberty. (1) This extravaganza gave the people a look at the Statue after its face lift.

American mercenary Eugene Hasenfus was captured on October 5 in Nicaragua after being caught delivering arms to rebels. However, he was released near Christmas as a gesture of peace.

The American-Russian relationship did not progress as summit talks in Iceland between President Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev ended in a stalemate.

Weighing under 2,000 pounds, the Voyager (6) carried enough fuel to make a non-stop flight around the globe.

In local news, during the summer the Gwinn Island boat dock fire (2) struck concern with many people as a fund was started to restore the boat dock.

During the fall evidence was found about the sale of weapons by federal officials to the Contras after Congress had declared it illegal. An investigation and trial continued through the summer.

In other news, Jim Bakker, (5) head of the PTL Club, resigned from his leadership position after a fellow evangelist revealed Bakker's intimate acquaintance with another woman. A wave of distrust of TV missionary programs swept the country, and many programs suffered financial loss.

Wallace Wilkinson (3) upset John Y. Brown, Jr. as he won the Democratic nomination for governor.

In May the USS Stark (4) was heavily damaged and 28 of her crew killed in an attack by Iraqi warplanes.

Journey's End

For seniors a school year officially ends with Baccalaureate and Graduation. This lets them know they are finished with high school and its time to set new goals and to make decisions. Baccalaureate was held Sunday, May 31 in the school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. The speaker was Rev. Robert Wheat, and his sermon was titled "Launching Into the Deep". He told the class about many things that can hold them back and how they have to unite with others to overcome them.

Commencement was held June 4, at 8:00 p.m. at the Norton Center for the Arts. Dr. Betty Sue Griffin was the speaker. Dr. Griffin told the seniors that they have the power and potential to do anything they set their mind on. She also told them not to forget where they came from or who helped them along the way. Spring Break '87

This year's spring break got off to an exciting start with a pep rally. Spring break was spent doing many different things. The weather in Danville started out cold but warmed up as the week went on. Many vacationers heading for Florida got a surprise when they got caught in snow — some people for up to 15 hours! Other people got their tans by staying in town and going to the tanning beds. The concert band went to Disney World to compete in a contest and won. Everyone came back refreshed and ready to finish out the 86-87 school year.

Li'l Abner Comes To Danville High School

Li'l Abner is the story of the inhabitants of the mythical town of Dogpatch, U.S.A., created by comic strip writer Al Capp. The U.S. Government has just declared Dogpatch to be the most unnecessary place in the whole country and that atomic weapons will be tested there. When the Dogpatchers realize that this means a total change in their no-work, no-worry lifestyles, they set out to find something necessary about their town.

The testing is postponed when Mammy Yokum produces her special body building potion, Yokumberry Tonic. As her son Abner and some volunteers go to Washington for testing of the tonic, the Dogpatchers cheer for the saving of their town. The annual Sadie Hawkins Day Race will be held on schedule. However, villainous General Bullmoose, anxious to have Yokumberry Tonic for himself, thwarts the ever-popular Daisy Mae's plan to catch and marry Li'l Abner. Bullmoose's secretary catches Abner instead. Just when all seems hopeless and the town is to be destroyed, Jubilation T. Cornpone, Dogpatch's legendary war hero, comes to the rescue. And they all live happily ever after.

Project Graduation

Recognizing the importance of having a safe, alcohol/drug-free graduation gathering, the 1987 senior class voted on and approved "Project Graduation".

Project Graduation is a relatively new idea which was developed last year in several schools with good results.

Attendance to Project Graduation was not mandatory. The project was left up to the class, who was assisted by a parent committee, but the seniors had the deciding voice.

Area businesses and corporations donated money and/or goods to help make Project Graduation more appealing to the students.

Bon Voyage Seniors

As the year came to a close, senior privileges came into effect. This year's senior class came up with new and exciting ideas to improve senior privileges. For example, instead of seniors cutting line in lunch, seniors were allowed to go to lunch five minutes early.

The activities included: sign a shirt day, hot dogs on the lawn, ordering out for pizza, the annual pig roast, and the usual privilege of being exempt from exams with a B or better average for the whole year.

On May 16, students entered the prom through a candle lighted walkway in the front of the school. As they entered they found the lobby transformed into a New York skyline. Student Council members worked very hard putting prom together for a special evening. Invitations were sent those who purchased them and were presented at the door. To select the prom king and queen, each couple was given a ballot as they walked in. Music was provided by Future Starr.

In Memory of John Arnold

John Arnold was born on October 3, 1967 and died tragically in a car accident on Thursday, March, 12, 1987 at the age of 19.

John was a graduate of the class of 1986. He was one of the few people who truly had to struggle for every breath of life. John had severe asthma problems. It was a major accomplishment for John to have lived the 19 years he did considering the uncountable number of asthma attacks he had. But he accomplished far more than what anyone really knows. John participated in soccer, cross country, various clubs, student council and band. For him to have participated in any athletic event, blow a trumpet or carry a heavy drum speaks for itself. But he was very talented at them too; he was talented and dedicated. So dedicated that he once left the hospital after being admitted into the critical list three nights before, because of an attack, traveled 6 to 8 hours, and marched in the finals of the national band contest.

John was an inspiration to us. He would not have wanted to be remembered as handicapped or asthmatic. He only wanted to be thought of as a normal healthy person. Because of his love of and dedication to music, the band has established a new award in his memory. It will be given every year to the band member who comes closest to displaying John's qualities. The award will be entitled the John Arnold Award of Valor. John had a love of life for which we will always remember him.

The Admiral football team carried on their strong tradition by compiling a 9-3 record and winning both the district and regional titles.

The Ads suffered a loss in the "Thoroughbred Classic" against Corbin in the first game of the season. The squad then recorded consecutive wins over cross-town rival Boyle County, Laurel County, Russell County, and Somerset before falling to a tough Ft. Knox team. Next the Admirals completed an exciting Homecoming week with a decisive victory over Jessamine County.

The team began playoff competition by defeating Cawood for the District Title. The following week with the regional title on the line, the Admirals downed a determined Ft. Thomas Highlands squad by a score of 35-34 in two overtimes. This was one of the most thrilling games ever played at Admiral Stadium.

The football team finished their season with a heart breaking loss in the state semi-final game at Belfry.

Freshmen Admirals

The 1986 Freshman team finished the season with a perfect record. This was the fifth consecutive year the freshmen Ads have completed an undefeated season.

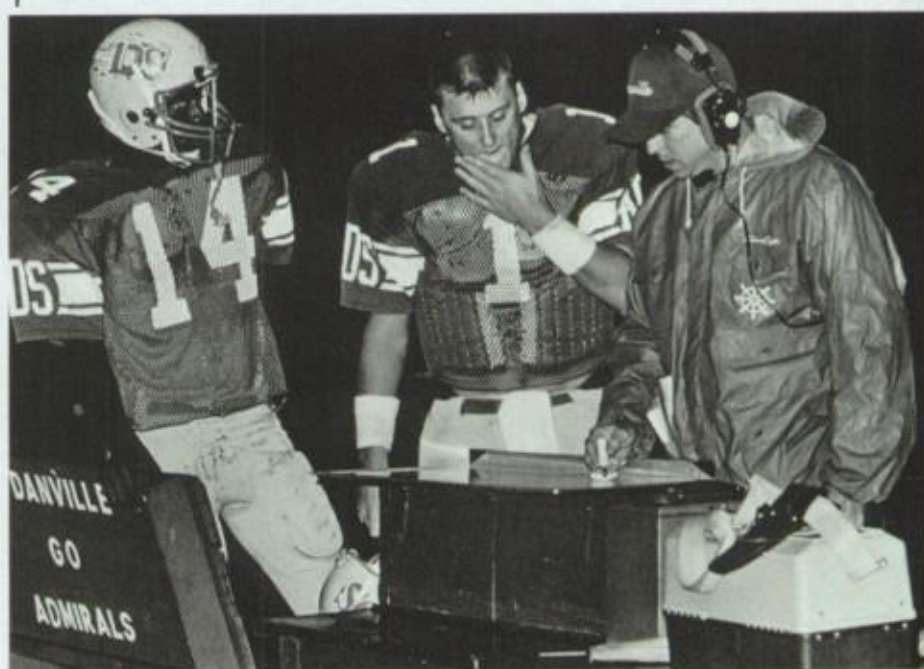

Head coach Kenny Young commented, "We just had a bunch of kids who were willing to work hard, and do the things that were necessary to go undefeated." Coach Young pointed out that most of the team were only seventh and eighth graders, therefore, they are looking forward to another successful season next year.

Coach Duffy's Senior Comments

Stuart Critchfield: Stuart helped anchor both the offensive and defensive lines. He was a leader and only senior lineman on the team.

Eddie Day: Eddie was a transfer student from Laurel County. He worked extremely hard during the summer and played an important role on defense in many key games. Eddie always worked hard and had a great attitude giving 110% at all times.

Jimmy Baughman: Jimmy started all four years and perhaps was the best all around back to play at Danville in quite some time. He was a first team All-State selection both his junior and senior years along with being the leading scorer in the area. Along with his offensive abilities, Jimmy was a tremendous defensive player.

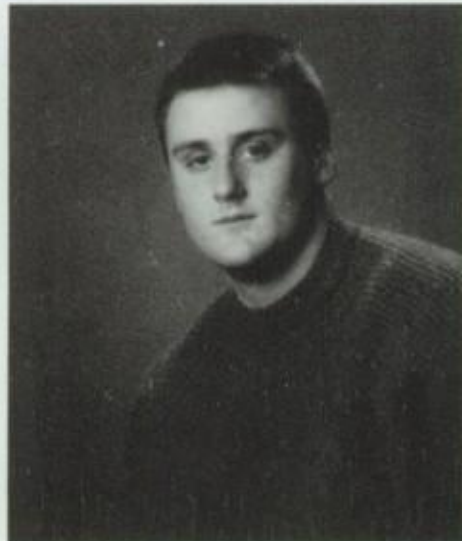

Keith Morgan: Keith has been the starting quarterback since his freshman year leading the team to an undefeated state championship his sophomore year.

During his senior year, Keith converted from a Wishbone quarterback to a drop back passer throwing for close to 2,000 yards. Keith's leadership on and off the field is greatly responsible for the success our football program has enjoyed.

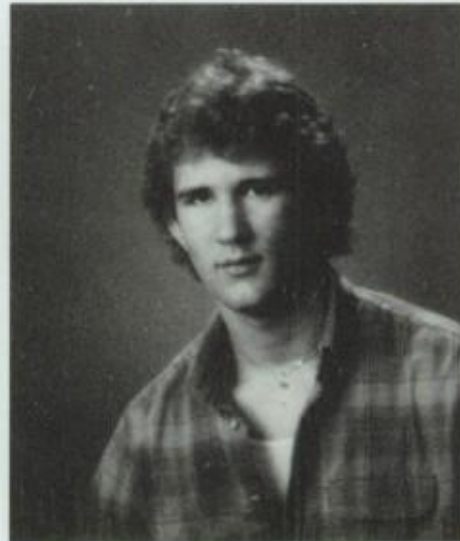

Marcus Hawkins: Marcus did not come out for football until his junior year. His hard work in the the off-season enabled him to improve his size, speed, and pass receiving drills which earned him a starting position as wide receiver.

Present for the signing were their parents, Mike Mahoney, first year coach from Murray, and Coach Tom Duffy.

Keith and Jimmy are looking forward to continuing their successful high school careers at the college level.

S E N I O R S

Coach Plummer made the following comments about this year's seniors:

Joe Robertson joined the cross country team in the tenth grade. Joe was a sprinter and not used to long distances. He improved tremendously in three years. This year he was one of our top five runners in scoring.

Jon Hunter is primarily a track runner (hurdles, 200m, 400m). Jon has been a cross country member his sophomore and senior year. Jon developed into a good distance runner. He has developed a great sense of pride and enjoyment for the long distance workout.

Marcia Mount started cross country in the eighth grade and was our top eighth grader. She was a member of our first girls' State cross country championship team. Also, she has been a member of the 84, 85, and 86 State Cross Country Championship. She is an outstanding runner and person. Marcia has been sidelined often with injuries and illness. She has a lot of talent and has been a great leader for the team. Marcia, I Love Ya!

Derek Donovan started Cross-Country in the sixth grade. He made steady improvement with his best year as a junior. The last three years Derek has been one of the top 5-7 runners on the team.

Boys Cross Country

The 1986 Boys Cross Country team was very strong this year. They placed second in the Region. At the State Ed Wilhite led them coming in seventh place and Chet Kavanaugh finished. They were also runners-up in the tournament. Ed Wilhite was named to the All-CKC team. Coach E. G. Plummer said, "We didn't win as many Saturday races as we did last year due to a lot of sickness and injuries."

Golf Team Earns Trip to State

The 1987 Admiral golf team enjoyed a very successful season under head coach Bernard Brant. The Ads captured the regional title and a trip to the state tournament in an exciting sudden death match that involved three strong contending squads. Shannon Meek, the only female member of the team, placed second in the region and qualified for the state tournament for the fifth consecutive year.

The Admirals are optimistic about next season with all four state qualifiers returning.

Gary Miller, Cotton Pollard, Justin Barnard, Mike Kehoe, Keith Parsons, and Grant Lewis.

Senior Comments

Gary Miller This was Gary's first year on the golf team. He made a good contribution. If he would have come out earlier then he would have had time to develop his potential, and perhaps turned into an excellent golfer.

Shannon Meek Shannon is really a super golfer, and a pleasure to coach. I've really enjoyed working with her the past two years. Her hard work has paid off as she has qualified 5 consecutive years for state competition. I wish Shannon the best of luck.

Lady Admirals Take the Court

With a record of 2-22 it may appear as though the Lady Admirals did not have any bright moments. However, a closer look reveals that the girls made many strides toward establishing a competitive program.

Playing a very tough schedule, the Lady Admirals did not post many wins. However, there were very few occasions when the girls did not put forth effort.

"Every player on the team made improvements from the beginning of the season. I felt like the girls became more knowledgeable of the game and played more fundamentally sound toward the end of the season." -Coach Taylor

Coach Recognizes Seniors

Pam Clements was a co-captain for the team. She set a good example by hustling in practice and in games. Pam played aggressive defense and had some good offensive games. Pam improved her ball handling skills throughout the year. Her inspiring play and leadership on the court will be missed.

Shannon Meek was a co-captain for the team. She held up to her teammates' expectations of her. She led the team in scoring and was second in assists and steals. Her defense and ball handling improved throughout the year. She kept a good attitude during the year and never quit regardless of the score. Her leadership and sound play will be greatly missed.

Rhonda Phillips improved greatly throughout the year. After sitting out several seasons, she kept a positive attitude and adjusted well to her role on both the Varsity and Junior Varsity squads. Rhonda developed into a team leader for the Junior Varsity. She gave the crowd some excitement when she would hit the "long bomb" from the field.

Crissy Smith was the leading rebounder for the team. She played excellent defense throughout the year. She held many leading scorers below their average. Crissy had good court sense and was able to get the ball to her teammates. Her aggressive play and leadership on the court will be missed.

Anthony

Anthony Honaker best exemplifies the term student-athlete. He contributed greatly to the success of the team. His hard work and hustle enabled him to lead the team in steals. His accomplishments on the court and in the classroom show that athletics and academics go hand in hand.

Steven Richards contributed to the success of the team. He was asked to play several positions throughout the year and played well no matter the assignment. He was always one of the first to practice and the last to leave. Steve is a good example that hard work leads to success.

Boys Basketball Has Successful Season

The boys basketball team enjoyed a very successful season. Opening with a win over defending State Champion Pulaski County the Admirals continued their winning ways into February with wins over highly touted Franklin County, Tate Creek, and Laurel County.

After hard fought wins over Boyle County and Lincoln County, the Admirals entered regional play with their sights set on a State Tournament berth. Another win over Laurel County moved them a step closer, but a disappointing loss to Harrodsburg ended their season.

The team compiled an excellent 22 wins 5 losses record and were champions of the 45th District and Central Kentucky Conference Tournament. Losing only two seniors, Anthony Honaker and Steven Richards, the team expects an even better season next year.

Baseball Ads

The 1987 Admiral baseball team took up right where last year's team left off. David Camic, coaching his second year, led the Ads to another superb season. After all the dust had settled the Ads showed an outstanding 22-7 record.

The Admirals faced Lincoln County in the first round of the district tournament. After this victory the Ads then defeated Garrard County to win their second straight district title. In the first round of the regional tournament the Ads downed Somerset, a team which had previously beaten the Ads by a score of 5-2. In the semifinals however, the Admirals were defeated by the eventual regional champions Russell County.

Anthony

Anthony Honaker started at first base. He was one of the most improved players on the team. His mood was always good. He hit .367 with 3 homeruns and was one of the leading RBI hitters. — David Camic

Keith Morgan, after a one year lay off, provided much needed pitching help to our inexperienced staff and played the outfield. He hit .295 with a 5-2 pitching record. I still believe we might have won the regional if he hadn't suffered a broken wrist in the District Tournament. — David Camic

Keith

Todd

Todd Randolph was a two year starter in the infield for the Ads. Todd hit .337 his junior year and .340 his senior year. Todd played centerfield his senior year. Todd was a good team player for us. — David Camic

BSU had a very active year. They started the year by having three entries in the Homecoming parade. During the Christmas season they decorated trees in Constitution Square for the Chamber of Commerce, had a Christmas party for children, and Doug Ford and Renee Owsley were King and Queen candidates for the Christmas Dance. In February they sold valentine grams and held their annual banquet. Articles ran in the Danville and Lexington papers about BSU and what people at DHS thought about Black History Month. Some of the fund raisers that BSU held were: bake sales, parties at the Batewood Center and car washes. The seniors in the group were honored with a tea and a barbeque in May. FBLA had a great year. One of the goals for the club was to get motivated and acknowledge the business department at DHS. The club built a float for the Homecoming Parade and helped sponsor the Valentine's Dance. James Moore

This past fall, Jim Moore was honored by winning the Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics. Teachers in the state were secretly nominated and required to send in a 12 page application in which two or three essays explaining their professional activities were included, as well as letters of support. The top three applications were chosen from each state and sent to the national level where one from each state was chosen. Mr. Moore advanced to the national level where he spent a week in Washington, D.C. He and the other winners met with Vice President Bush and enjoyed a dinner at the Franklin Diplomatic dining room at the Department of State.

This award was sponsored by the National Science Foundation in which a $5,000 grant was given to the math department of each school the teachers represented. Along with this, Mr. Moore received many personal gifts such as an Apple Computer and a programmable calculator. Mr. Moore also received much publicity as he was mentioned in the USA Today and other publications.

New Teachers

Seven new teachers began teaching at DHS this year. Ms. Lucinda Sanders teaches History and Government. Ms. Patty Boyd teaches Math and Computer Math. Ms. Virginia Keiser teaches Health Services. Ms. Patricia McDaniel teaches Fundamental Math and Language. Mr. Scott McPherson is the new choir director. Ms. Kelly King teaches Science, and Ms. Sue Smith teaches Business.

Brenda Ellis

Brenda Ellis has been the yearbook advisor for the past three years. She is very dedicated in seeing that all of the deadlines are met, and all the yearbooks are distributed as soon as possible. Long hours and much planning is mandatory for a yearbook advisor and Ms. Ellis has successfully met the requirements. Therefore, the 1986-87 yearbook staff wishes to thank her for all the help she has provided for the completion of this yearbook.

Harold Kleinert

Danville High School's TMH teacher, Mr. Harold Kleinert, was the runner-up TMH director in the state-wide program. Every district nominated a representative who had to answer questions about his program, how it runs, and his philosophy toward the class. Three people then came to observe the classroom and the evaluations were extremely thorough. A convention was then held in November in Louisville. Mr. Kleinert has been teaching the TMH class for 18 years.

Bobbie Holtzclaw

Mrs. Bobbie Holtzclaw, math teacher, retired after this school year. She had been teaching for 36 years and has spent her whole career in the Danville School system. Mrs. Holtzclaw taught morals and ethics in grade school then taught English and Math in high school.

After retiring, Mrs. Holtzclaw plans to stay at home for a while and then do some public work.

She will miss the interest of the good students the most about teaching. Her favorite part of teaching was seeing the students excell. The highlight of her career was "when a student had been struggling and pulled it together and saw math was fun." Mrs. Holtzclaw graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College and did her graduate work at Scarritt College in Nashville.

Don Hoffman — Nellie Gray

The Kentucky Association for Progress in Science (KAPS) Convention was held November 21-22 at the Radisson Plaza Hotel in Lexington, Kentucky. Mr. Don Hoffman's presentation was a multimedia demonstration-lecture on the chemistry and geometry of coordination complexes. Mrs. Nellie Gray's helped with the shop-talk in biology, which was where biology teachers in Kentucky got together and talked about things they do in the classroom on different topics.

SHIP'S LOG

Jan.-June, 1987

After returning from Christmas break, lots of work was still to be done. Seniors were filling out college applications and beginning to get a touch of senioritis.

As well as all of the fall successes, spring sports brought lots of recognition. The wrestling team had a winning season only to finish it with an individual State trophy brought home by Jim Clay. The basketball teams had productive seasons with boys varsity capturing the 45th District title. The baseball season opened with tryouts on March 2 and they advanced to the regional tournament. The girls track team gained another State championship and the boys placed fourth. Golf had a great year and sent Mike Kehoe, Cotton Pollard, Grant Lewis, Patton Kincaid and Shannon Meek to the State tourney. The boys and girls tennis teams each had great seasons under the leadership of Coach Garner for the boys and Coach Reynolds for the girls. The band traveled to Florida over Spring Break for competition. They brought back first place trophies and they later earned the right to play at State level competition where they received high honors.

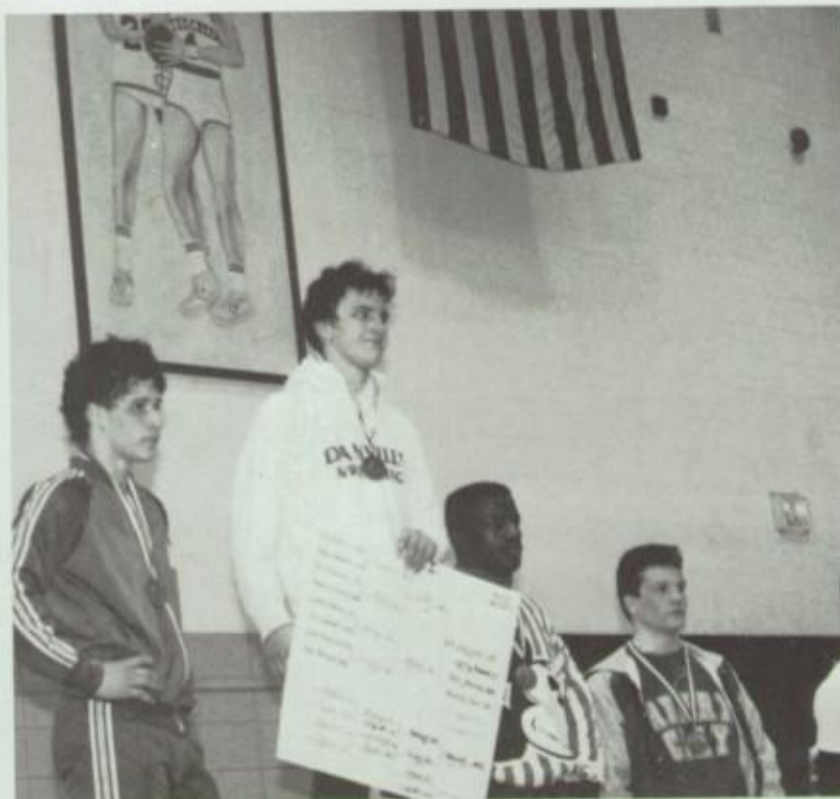

The academic season at D.H.S. was exceptional as well. Although there aren't as many competitions, each of those is divided into categories and therefore the competition is much larger than it first appears. Lake Herrington competition was held January 24. Teams and individuals placed very well at varsity and junior varsity levels. This is in preparation for Governor's Cup in which the Creative Expression team placed first at the regional level. Admirals were also seen doing well in Sweet Sixteen Academic Competition at various levels. The Odyssey of the Mind teams performed beautifully this year when all three high school teams swept State and went to World Finals in Michigan. No team from the high school placed below 15th.

Other activities of the second semester included Black History Month in February and Dr. Raymond Burse, President of Kentucky State University, speaking to the student body. Later in February, Student Council held a tug-of-war between the classes and the Seniors became the final victors.

1. Let it snow, let it snow was the thought of DHS students in hopes that school would be closed for a few days.
2. Everyone danced to the music provided by Lance Burgess and Jimmie Baughman at the Beach Ball.
3. Jim Clay is recognized as the state champion in the 155 pound class.
4. The horticulture class celebrated Arbor Day by planting a tree on the front lawn. The tree was donated by the Danville Garden Club.
5. Mrs. Brown records final grades in students' folders.
6. Professor Stan Wiggin, Commissioner of the Lake Herrington Academic Conference, presents Mr. Turner with a trophy.
7. Dr. Raymond Burse spoke to the student body in February.
8. Everyone crowds around the refreshment table at the academic reception.
9. This year's academic award winners were called to the stage to be recognized.

The National Math Exam was given on March 3 to about 110 members of the student body. "Lil' Abner" was this year's musical starring Brent Atwood, Kim Reardon, Thomas Coburn and Janet Hilbert.

A long awaited Spring Break came in April. Many planned to leave town, but departures were delayed because of snow farther south. DHS had a Spirit Day on Friday before the break and everyone donned jams, hats, and sunglasses even though it was 30 degrees outside. Later, many juniors took the ACT, and some began preparing for the SAT. An APES (American Private Enterprise System) seminar was held locally for DHS and Boyle County students. Joey Sallee and Teresa Clements earned the right to attend the State APES convention in Lexington through a testing procedure.

In May, Mrs. Biles' 11-300 English class went "Back to Walden" to get a feel for Thoreau's two year experience with nature. Soon afterwards, from May 12-14, the KEST was given. Prom was May 16 and everyone danced to the music of Future Starr and enjoyed the theme of "New York, New York." May also held Student Council elections with the Kehoe-Sellers ticket emerging as victors. The plant sale was held along with awards day, the academic reception, the art exhibit, and the first annual senior recognition assembly. Arena scheduling was May 19 and everyone learned what their schedule for next year would be. May was also a month of due dates for papers, projects and tests. The heat and the realization that everything was due yesterday only made one year for school to be over and the seniors count down the hours until graduation.

1. Baseball team members Bryon Green and Michael Campbell were seen pre-registering before everyone else because they had to leave for a game.
2. Amy Jackson turns over the leadership of the senior class president to Susan Rankin.
3. Marcia Mount reads Mike Kehoe the responsibilities of being Student Council president.
4. Two slates ran for Student Council president and vice-president, they were Mount-Sardone and Kehoe-Sellers.
5. Mrs. Holtzclaw receives a retirement gift from Mr. Turner at the PTO Teacher Appreciation Luncheon.
6. Thomas Coburn received the honor of being the recipient of the first Admiral Award presented by the principal.

THE WORKING CLASS

Not everyone at Danville High School has a job. Some chose not to work. When asked why they work, some say because it teaches them the value of money, some because they want spending money, others because their parents want them to.

Some of the students have to work because it is required of them. For instance a student taking Vocational Careers I or II, taught by Mr. Robert Trumbo, must have a job to receive full credit for these classes. Mr. Trumbo also commented, "They must keep a job for the full school year to receive full credit."

Ray's Market; Tresa Wilson, Baskin Robbins; Kathy Hafley, McDonald's; Kay Coulter, Epicure; Ramona Singleton, Hardee's. Second row: Beth Allen, Western Steer; Daryl Johnson, Foodtown; Keith Whitehead, House of Cheung; Kim Alcorn, All Sports; Joy Hillard, Danville Cinemas; Laurie Swain, Sports Coordinates; Pam Clouse, Long John Silvers; Carol Followell, Ephriam McDowell Regional Medical Center; Ronnette Tolliver, McDonald's. Third row: Marcus Hawkins, Wendy's; Kevin O. Gray, Centre College; Patricia Hooper, Druthers; Karla Smith, Druthers; Tracy Turner, Roses; Kelly Terry, Danville Cinemas; Heather Thompson, Grider Pharmacy; Renee Ford, Baskin Robbins. Fourth row: William Galbreath, City Hall; Paul Harper, Haprer Pharmacy; Jerry Domidion, Kroger; Joe Warner, IGA; Tommy McKinzy, Wendy's.

Pam Clements, Rhonda Phillips, Jimmy Baughman, Angie Hardwick, Keith Morgan, and Stuart Critchfield pull hard at the tug-of-war contest against the teachers. The seniors proved to be the strongest team in the school.

On June 4 anchor was dropped on the 1986-1987 school year. It had been a year of many accomplishments in all areas. The Student Council officers had provided great leadership and worked to make it one of the best years in Danville High School's history. Because of their efforts, school spirit was high throughout the year.

Each step in life brings new challenges and new waters to be tested. Anchors will be dropped in many ports for different lengths of time, but after a time anchors will be lifted to move on and it will again be . . .
